TAXATION PROBLEMS STILL WORRY CONGRESS

Little Likelihood Of Reaching Solution of Problem Before March 4—Trouble Will Vex New Administration Is Belief.

Washington, Dec. 28.—The dawn of the new year will find congress still wrestling with the fundamental problems confronting the country—taxation, the tariff and foreign trade—with little prospect of a satisfactory solution being found for either before March 4, it was predicted today.

In the judgement of Republican and Democratic leaders alike all three problems will rise to vex the Harding administration and the new congress as much as the difficult question of foreign relations.

It is conceded by both sides that the omnibus tariff bill passed by the house recently will not pass the senate unless it is amended materially. A number of commodities inserted in it by a majority of the house will be stripped from it in the senate.

Beyond the emergency tariff policy it involves, senate leaders declare, lies the more important one of maintaining the country's trade balance on an even keel, embracing as it does the far reaching subject of exchange.

Senators opposed to it, like Hitchcock, Democrat of Nebraska, declare it is impossible to construct even temporary tariff barriers to shut out exports to this country if American producers are to find an outlet for exports to foreign countries.

There is a well founded report that Great Britain will suggest to President-elect Harding, as soon as he enters the White House, that he summon a world economic conference, to be held at Washington for the purpose of devising machinery for the movement of international trade, and the readjustment of exchange rates.

TARIFF ISSUE DISCUSSED AT HARDING HOME

Senator McCumber Confers With the President-elect.

OPINION IS GIVEN

Marion Star Prints Editorial Against Obstructive Tactics.

Marion, O., Dec. 28.—Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota found a wide range of subjects open to him when he conferred today with Senator Harding. Senator McCumber is ranking member at present of the finance committee which has in charge the new tariff legislation members of congress.

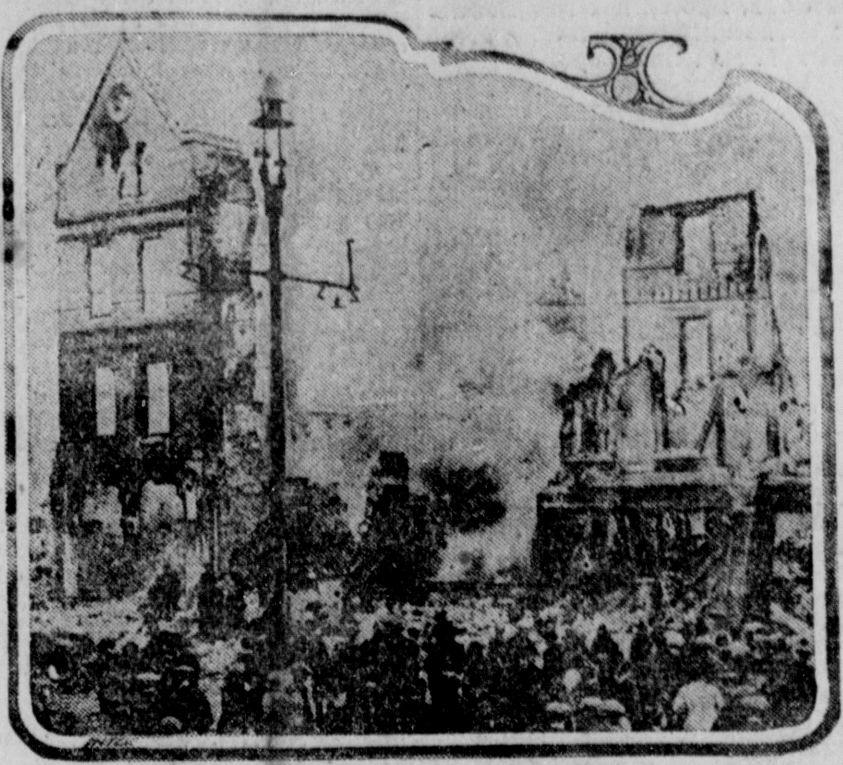

Possibilities of a Democratic filibuster as indicated by Senator Harrison and others were fully discussed, by the president-elect and his senatorial colleague, it was said. Senator Harding, in his Minneapolis speech during the campaign advocated strongly interest in the pending legislation.

Senator McCumber also is a member of the agricultural affairs committee and in a position to give expert advice on the probable action in the senate on appropriations measures.

An indication of Senator Harding's attitude toward Democratic obstructive tactics may be gleaned from an editorial appearing today in the Marion Star of which he still is editor. The Star points out what it declares is the manifest absurdity of a system which permits a defeated party to obstruct or delay measures favored by the successful party for four months after election.

Oscar S. Strauss of New York former secretary of commerce and labor in the Roosevelt cabinet came to Marion to discuss with Senator Harding both the financial situation and the complications now imminent in Europe. Mr. Strauss has been regarded as a possible ambassador to Germany.

Daugherty and Hower Also Placed In Harding Cabinet.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Henry C. Wallace of Iowa, publisher of a farm paper, has been chosen for secretary of agriculture in the new administration, according to reports. This closes speculation on two more cabinet posts, the attorney general ship allotted to H. M. Daugherty being the other. Wallace will succeed a fellow farm publisher, Secretary Meredith, also living in Des Moines.

Both Iowa senators, Kenyon and Cummins, it is stated, have given their approval, but Senator Capper of Kansas, likewise a publisher is credited with being responsible for the selection.

Herbert Hoover has also made great progress as a prospective member of the Harding cabinet. He is being mentioned for secretary of interior or secretary of commerce.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR HAMON WOMAN AWAITS CONVICTION

Death Penalty Not Likely To Be Used It Is Believed.

Ardmore, Dec. 28.—Life imprisonment will be the penalty exacted by the law from Clara Smith Hamon if she is convicted of the murder of Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma politician and oil king, according to County Attorney Russell B. Brown today.

Oklahoma laws provide either life imprisonment or death in the electric chair for conviction of first degree murder.

"I don't like to anticipate action of the court on the Hamon case, but I don't believe the death penalty will be asked," said Brown. "Public opinion would be against the death penalty and the law would be equally satisfied by life imprisonment if Mrs. Hamon were convicted."

The town of Ardmore was quiet today. Mrs. Hamon again spent the night at her sister's home in Wilson, Okla., intending to move in to confer with her lawyers during the day.

KAGY STATEMENT NOT BEFORE JURY IN JUSTICE'S TRIAL

McGannon to Take Stand In His Own Defense.

Cleveland, Dec. 28.—Harold C. Kagy's last statement, made to his brothers, Edmund and Donald and his widow, will not go before the jury in the trial of William H. McGannon, chief justice of the Cleveland municipal court, under indictment in connection with Kagy's death last May.

Judge Maurice Bernon this morning, after attorneys for the defense had attempted by the introduction of additional witnesses to secure the introduction of the document, definitely ruled it out, on the grounds that the defense had not shown that Kagy knew he was resting in the shadow of death as the law requires.

In this statement Kagy stated that the fatal shot was fired by John W. Joyce, previously tried and acquitted of the crime. Attempts of the state to introduce it at the Joyce trial failed for the same reason.

The records of central police station, by which the defense attempted to show that Patrolman Brooks, who testified that he patrolled the beat where the crime was committed on the night in question, was also ruled out, the court holding that it was not an original record.

Mrs. William H. McGannon, the next witness, will be followed on the stand by her husband, who will tell the story of the night on which the shooting occurred.

REAPPRAISEMENT OF REAL ESTATE SUSPENDED UNTIL FEBRUARY

Tax Commission Changes Order—Public Hearings On Subject To Be Held During Week Of January 17—Akron Wants 50 Per Cent Reduction.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—The state tax commission has suspended until Feb. 1 final action relative to its tentative order for reappraisal of real estate in sixty counties.

The commission's order as originally drawn called for reappraisal in 61 counties, including Jackson. This county, however, has been taken from the list, having had a reappraisal two years ago.

At public hearings, to be conducted by the tax commission during the week of January 17, individual taxpayers as well as organizations favoring and opposing reappraisal will be heard.

The action of the commission follows a request by Gov. Cox for a reconsideration. Various organizations including the Ohio State Grange and the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, also, had protested against the commission's order.

The tax commission has referred to Attorney General Price, the unprecedented request, made by a delegation of Akron officials who visited the commission, that real estate valuations in Akron be reduced fifty percent below cause of the deflation of values following the slump in the Akron rubber industry.

Last spring, tax values in Akron were raised about 25 percent. Bond issues aggregating millions of dollars, were voted. Akron councilmen and members of the board of education there declared that council and the school board are willing to pare their budget to accord with a fifty percent reduction in the real estate tax duplicate.

Members of the tax commission expressed belief that they are without power to comply with the request of the Akron officials.

Oscar S. Strauss of New York former secretary of commerce and labor in the Roosevelt cabinet came to Marion to discuss with Senator Harding both the financial situation and the complications now imminent in Europe. Mr. Strauss has been regarded as a possible ambassador to Germany.

Members of the tax commission expressed belief that they are without power to comply with the request of the Akron officials.

RECORD BREAKING ATTENDANCE SEEN AT SCHOOL MEETING

Over 2500 Public School Teachers Of Ohio Expected.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—Prediction that over 2,500 Ohio public school teachers will be here when the initial session of the mid-winter meeting of the Ohio State Teachers Association opens this afternoon was made by F. P. Geiger, East Liverpool president of the association.

This unprecedented attendance at a midwinter meeting of this association is attributed to the widespread interest in contemplated amendments in the state school laws dealing with tenure of teachers.

The meeting will begin with an address on "the place of teaching in the public service" by Dr. George D. Strayer, teachers college, Columbian university.

Vernon M. Reigel, Columbus, state superintendent of public instruction and W. W. McIntire, Athens, dean of the state normal school there, are to give results of the operation of school revenue and teachers retirement laws passed at the session of the state legislature last winter.

The legislative committee of the association has drafted a bill to be introduced in the state legislature this winter dealing with tenure of office of school teachers and providing standardized requirements for election as a teacher.

If the bill becomes a law as it now stands, teachers of six years experience beginning with the 1921-22 school year, would be entitled to permanent employment; those with three years experience when the 1923-24 term ended an thereafter, all with a high school and two years' normal school education, would be entitled to indefinite tenure.

FLU EPIDEMIC NOT FEARED THIS YEAR SAYS HEALTH SERVICE

May Break Out In Places But Will Not Be Epidemic.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Influenza attacks carry with them "a definite immunity to subsequent attacks lasting several years," according to conclusions reached by the public health service after intensive study in the homes where the disease was epidemic in 1918-1919.

"Inasmuch as the epidemic of 1918 and 1919 affected so very large a proportion of the population," the statement by Surgeon General Cummings added, "there would seem to be reasonable grounds for believing that even should 'flu' become prevalent here and there this winter it would not assume the epidemic proportions of the past two years, nor would it rage in such form."

WILSON WILL VETO ALL LEGISLATION PASSED BY CONGRESS

Railroad Bill and Soldier Bonus Included In List.

Washington, Dec. 28.—President Wilson is determined to exercise the veto on legislation passed and pending before congress now it was indicated at the White House today. The veto of the resolution reviving the war finance corporation to extend aid to agricultural interests was predicted at the White House.

The resolution extending the time for the railroads to divest themselves of their interests in railroad equipment companies, in accordance with the Clayton act, will also meet with a presidential veto, it is said.

The omnibus tariff and the soldier bonus bills are also likely to meet obstruction by a presidential veto if they are finally passed by congress.

PURITAN SCENES ARE CALLED FORTH IN COURT AFFAIR

Cry of "Witch" Resounds In New York Court As Case Comes Up.

New York, Dec. 28.—Echoes of Puritan days resounded within the walls of Washington Heights Court when screams of "witch! witch! She's a witch!" were hurled at Mrs. Bessie Avorin.

Mrs. Avorin appeared as a complainant against Mrs. Sophie Stern, whom she charged with having annoyed her with untrue accusations, but suddenly she became defendant when Mrs. Stern came into court with her two-year-old daughter who had been "cursed," she said, by Mrs. Avorin and had lost the power of her legs.

"Up to two months ago," said Mrs. Stern, while her sympathizers "booed" Mrs. Avorin, "my baby was strong and healthy. Then this woman went and cursed it. Your Honor, that woman is a witch. Two hundred years ago she would have been burned at the stake."

"The witch the witch!" yelled the woman spectators.

Bang, bang, went the Magistrate's gavel.

Then the Magistrate dismissed the summons against Mrs. Stern for lack of evidence.

EXPECT OVER 100,000 TO SEE CEREMONIES

Announcement has been made that Governor-elect Davis has approved the program as outlined by the general committee on inauguration representing the Columbus chamber of commerce.

DENIES HE ORDERED STATE TO TAKE CASE

Oklahoma City, Okla., Dec. 28.—Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma today denied that he had ordered the attorney general's office to "take over the prosecution of the trial of Clara Smith Hamon," as variously reported during the last few days. The governor declared no such order had been given and admitted it was under consideration.

"I never said I would use the state's legal resources to force Mrs. Hamon into prison for her alleged crime," said the governor in commenting on a statement attributed to him, "but she ought to go to jail."

"I have not the slightest idea as to whether the governor will call in my office in the Hamon case," Attorney General Prince Freeling said today.

CLEVELAND'S DREAM OF UNION STATION TO COME TRUE; COST WILL BE 89 MILLIONS

Plan For Public Square Depot Goes To Commerce Commission.

Cleveland, Dec. 28.—Cleveland's dream of years bids fair to soon be on the way to completion. The plan for a public square union passenger depot, into which all the railroads entering the city, with the exception of the Pennsylvania, will run their passenger trains, goes to the interstate commerce commission for approval immediately after January 1, it was announced late yesterday.

Actual construction of the station and terminals, which are expected to cost $89,000,000, will begin early in the spring, it is expected, as the approval of the interstate commerce commission is regarded as a certainty.

Under the franchise granted by a vote of the people in January, 1919, the Union terminals company has five years in which to complete the project but officials are optimistic that the work may be done in a much shorter time.

Financing of the project will be undertaken by the Union Trust company, the name under which Cleveland banks will merge on January 1, with capital of $33,000,000 and resources of more than $300,000,000.

MARTENS TO RETURN AS U. S. DEPORTEE

New York, Dec. 28.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, Russian soviet representative in this country, will return to Russia early in January, not as foreign envoy leaving these shores voluntarily at the bequest of his government but as a deportee. ## ANOTHER "RUM REBELLION" IN WISCONSIN FEARED AS PROHIBITION OFFICERS ARRIVE district in a drive on alleged bootleggers, were expressed here today as forty eight officers arrived with warrants for the arrest of thirty eight Hurley saloon keepers.

The warrants were issued by Judge K. M. Landis in the federal court. The officers were sent here by Prohibition Enforcement Agent Richardson from Chicago.

GERMANY WARNED SHE MUST CARRY OUT DISARMAMENT

Conference at Nice Will Take Up Question Soon.

Paris, Dec. 28.—The allegation that Germany has failed to disarm as she promised to do at the Spa conference will be taken up by the Anglo-Franco-Italian conference which will convene in a few days at Nice.

Germany had previously been warned that, unless she carried out the disarmament conditions imposed at Spa, allied troops would extend the zones of occupation in Germany and take over the Ruhr valley the chief coal fields of Germany.

The inter-allied mission in Berlin headed by General Nollet is reported to have turned over documents and figures to the council of ambassadors to prove that Germany had not reduced her armed forces in accordance with the Spa agreement.

The council of ambassadors decided however that it was not competent to deal with this important matter and the question of German disarmament is now being put squarely up to the allied governments themselves. The next allied decision in the matter will be taken at Nice.

SOVIET COMMISSAR SAYS HE REGRETS ACTION OF U. S.

Deportation Of Martens Unfortunate Affair He Declares.

BY LOUISE BRYANT.
Special Correspondent of the I. N. S. By Wireless.

Moscow, Dec. 28.—George Tchitcherine, Russian soviet commissar for foreign affairs has just granted me an exclusive interview for the International News Service regarding the decision of the United States government to deport Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, soviet representative in New York. Mr. Tchitcherine said:

"The decision of the United States government to deport the soviet representative, especially in view of the motivation of that decision, namely, that Mr. Martens, being an agent of the soviet government, belongs to an organization seeking by force and violence to overthrow the United States government, seems to be the product of an incomprehensible, panicky state of mind which will at last to impartial observers as a puzzling psychological curiosity.

"It would be unkind toward America to believe that the decision represents the opinion of the American people, especially of the American workingmen who have given so many proofs of their sympathy toward soviet Russia.

"We also refuse to believe that it represents the viewpoint of American business interests, whose many negotiations with us demonstrate their great desire to re-establish relations with Russia.

"However, the decision to deport our representative precludes the possibility of any and all business with America for the time being.

"We have instructed our representative to cancel all pending deals until a reversal of the United States decision makes business possible."

Is It Yours

This is the Birthday of ALEXANDER I.

December 28, 1777.

Alexander 1st, of Russia, because of the strange contradictions of his character, was one of the most interesting as well as one of the most important figures in the history of the Nineteenth Century. He was all things to all people: Napoleon called him "a shifty Byzantine;" Metternich "a madman;" England credited him with great qualities.

When he was in his twenties he mounted the throne over the body of his murdered father. He was young, he was a revolutionist, he lamented the slavery of Russia and promised to make it free. But he was too much of a natural autocrat to be able to do this his reforms in provinces annoyed Central Russia, the aristocracy Alexander met Napoleon and found a kindred spirit in that man of small stature and great imagination. He forgot the interests of his country. "What is Europe?" he said to Napoleon's ambassador, "what is it, if it is not you and I?"

Yet these two great sovereigns could not get along together, and in the end the downfall of Napoleon left Alexander the most powerful monarch in Europe. He forgot little by little his ideals of freedom, he crushed Russia more than previous emperors had done. He died in 1825, "crushed" as he said "beneath the terrible burden of a crown."

He is one of the most tragic figures of modern times, for no one started out with higher ideals, and no one fell further from their achievement. The Russian people, when he died, were nothing better than serfs.

METEORS TO PLAY DAYTON UNIVERSITY

St. Brigid's Meteors, the crack kid combination of this city, will endeavor to add the University of Dayton Maroons to their fast growing list of victories, in a game to be played at the Rink Wednesday night.

Despite predictions of the crepe hangers that the Meteors would have tough sledding this season, the kids have taken up the work where they left off after a splendid season of the court last year and have tossed four victories without a single defeat so far.

In meeting the Gem City Quintet the Meteors will lineup against some old rivals at the cage game. Under the name of the Maroons, the Wednesday night visitors were defeated twice by the Meteors last season, but in both games the Dayton five put up worthy struggle before being subdued. So far this year no team has been able to register ten points against Capt. Neville's smooth running scoring machine, which is quite some defensive record to hang over the mantlepiece. In fact the average in four games has been five points to a game. The contest Wednesday will start at 7:30 o'clock.

NEW RETAIL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE WILL BE APPOINTED SOON

A new Retail Affairs Committee for the second fiscal year of the Xenia Chamber of Commerce, will be appointed within a few days by President F. W. Dadds, it is thought.

The new committee will continue the work started by last year's Retail Affairs Committee in promoting the affairs of the merchants, and in providing censorship for advertising projects, for which the merchant is almost daily solicited. This aid last year alone, was thought to have saved merchants many dollars in eliminating the worthless publicity matter from that of value.

The committee will have a new matter to take up in establishing a protective measure for merchants to eliminate outside vendors, who, without paying local taxes, subscribing to local utilities, or participating in local affairs, dispose of their wares from vehicles on the street corners.

The matter of 5:30 closing which was successfully instituted by the Retail Affairs Committee during the past year, will also be vigorously pushed during the coming year. Plans will also be laid soon for a retail merchants banquet, at which time a speaker will be secured to talk on a subject regarding merchandizing and retail efficiency. Such a banquet was held last year, when Lynn Revenough, of the Columbus Retail Merchants' Association, addressed local merchants. The committee last year consisted of forty members of the Chamber of Commerce, including a committee of five to exercise censorship of publicity matter.

BASKETBALL GAME TO START EARLY

Because of the joint reunion of the classes of 1919 and 1920 of Central High School to be held at the Elk's Club Tuesday evening, the Central High and Alumni basketball game to be played at the Rink will start at seven o'clock.

It is believed by the fans that Coach Conter's quintet will have the hardest game yet this season on its hands, when the present cage outfits mix with the old guards. In the lineup of the former pastimers will be such stars as "Yank" Stephens, "Bill" Riddell, "Fuzz" Vannorsdall, Arthur Bales, "Bunzo" Ball, Allan Kestle, "Izzy" Hyman, "Skipper" Satterfield, "Sheeny" Curlett and other basketballers who are not to be scoffed at.

These lads have been cavoring together in practice sessions and having performed recently in under the name of the high school team, they had little trouble in dropping into old habits. The fracas is expected to be a lively one from the start.

RECEIVE WORD OF DEATH OF MAN IN PENITENTIARY

Chief of Police M. E. Graham received a telegram Monday afternoon from Warden P. E. Thomas, of the Ohio State Penitentiary asking that he forward to Irene Jackson, colored, word of her brother's death at the institution.

George Jackson, brother of the girl, was sent up from Franklin county, for car breaking. He had formerly been a soldier and was gassed while overseas, resulting in a two-circular condition that caused his death while he was in the penitentiary.

Chief Graham was unable to locate the girl in this city or at Wilberforce University and postal officials claimed they had no such name on either their city or rural lists. Warden Thomas was immediately notified.

MERCURY DROPS TO ZERO MONDAY

The weather man having set up the pins, old Jack Frost rolled them for a strike Monday night.

The mercury in the crystal dropped flatter than an empty blown paste tube by morning of Tuesday, the quicksilver standing at nothing flat.

This is the word from Goes Station where it is always colder than any place else in the United States. People in Xenia reported the same temperature, however, Tuesday morning. The weather was no colder than several weeks ago, during the first really cold spell, when the mercury fell to even a few points below par.

Warmer weather is forecast, however, for Wednesday.

COURT OF APPEALS SUPPORTING DECISION

The Court of Appeals handed down a decision Tuesday supporting the court of common pleas in the case of Alice Lee, et al. plaintiffs in error against Edward H. Ault, et al., defendants in error, to set aside the will of William H. Ault.

When the case was first heard the jury set aside the will. A motion for a new trial was overruled and judgment entered on the verdict. The defense then sought to reverse the judgment on the grounds of defect of parties, error of the trial court particularly on the charge and the weight of the evidence.

The decision rendered by the appellate court affirms the judgment as found in the lower courts favoring the plaintiffs. C. L. Darlington and C. L. Bogle were attorneys for the plaintiffs and Marcus Shoup and Harry D. Smith for the defendants in error.

SENT TO HOSPITAL

SENDS OUT NOVEL CHRISTMAS CARDS

C. H. Miller, a former Xenian, of 448 Waller street, San Francisco, sent out unique Christmas cards this year, his friends here receiving copies. The cards show a photographic head of Mr. Miller riding in an airplane. The verse is the modified version of a song sung by Trinity M. E. Church choir in this city, when Mr. Miller was a boy here and a member of the church over fifty years ago.

Mr. Miller's modification is as follows:

"If I were a voice, a sonorous voice,
A voice that could come through;
I'd fly on the wings of the morning
Fling
And pause long enough in my rapid flight
To 'Merry Christmas' you."

The original, from which the verse was parodied, was enclosed with the card addressed Rev. V. F. Brown, present pastor of Trinity. The original is:

"If I were a voice, a persuasive voice,
That could travel the whole world through;
I'd fly on the wings of the morning
Fling
And greet to men with a gentle might
And tell them to be true."

TRINITY CHURCH CHILDREN GIVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The yearly Christmas entertainment of the Trinity Methodist Church, was held at the church Monday evening.

The money contributed will be sent by the church to the starving Chinese.

On New Year's afternoon a reception will be held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. V. F. Brown, to the members of the church and friends of Rev. and Mrs. Brown, from two until five o'clock.

EVERY PERSON IN THE NATION, INCLUDING THE NATION ITSELF, "GOUGHED" BY THE COAL OPERATORS.

The charging of "outrageous prices" for coal by operators was admitted by officials of the National Coal Association, representing producers of one-half the bituminous coal output, under searching examination before the senate coal committee at Washington last week.

Correspondence from the files of the association, seized by order of the investigating committee, was used throughout the inquiry. Included in a long list of letters read into the record was one written by Col. D. B. Wentz, president of the National Coal Association, warning members of the organization that unless the charging of "outrageous" prices stopped, government control of the coal industry was inevitable.

The letter stated that the National Coal Association, co-operating with railroad officials and the interstate commerce commission, had prevented the appointment of a federal fuel administrator but that it would not be able to prevent some sort of governmental control of the fuel industry much longer unless the operators quit charging such extortionate prices for coal. Colonel Wentz said he spoke with authority as he had been in touch with the White House.

At a certain juncture, the committee pulled out a letter showing how the price of Illinois soft coal at the mine had advanced from about $3.25 in March to about $8.50 in October. Mr. Morrow insisted that wage increases had doubled the cost of production, but Senator Edge called attention to previous testimony that wage increases could not be held accountable for more than 50 to 60 cents increase per ton, whereas it was a jump of $5 per ton.

Evidence submitted indicated that the government has been overcharged many millions of dollars in its purchases of coal this year, but that high officials, notably Secretary of War Baker, insisted on entering the market at the time when prices were highest and thus helped to bid prices still higher.

Colonel Wentz told the committee he had acted as a buying agent for the war department, receiving a commission of 50 cents a ton. His commissions amounted to about $75,000, he said. The evidence showed he bought coal for the war department at $11 a ton. Think of that, my countrymen, and of the President of the National Coal Association being paid $75,000 commission for furnishing coal at $5 per ton more than would have been an honest price. While such men are at large, never let us hear of any poor man being sent to jail for stealing a ham.

At the same time coal companies of which he was the head were selling coal at $3.50 a ton and making a profit. Colonel Wentz insisted that he did not buy for the war department from any of his own companies, and that in making the purchases he was merely carrying out the instructions of the secretary of war.

THE TROUBLES OF THE ALLIED CONFERENCE.

The allied conference that hopes ultimately to decide how much Germany can pay, and even to convince Germany that she can pay it, and finally to induce those countries that are to receive the indemnities that they cannot do better than to accept the amount decided on—the conference that is to settle these little matters has again adjourned without settling them.

The conference has remarked before this how much better some other time looks for arriving at a decision than the time actually confronting it. Accordingly it has tried adjourning before, but each time the time looked forward to arrives it turns out to be very much like the time the conference adjourned from, whereupon the conference has again adjourned to what has seemed to it a more favorable time. This confidence in time will perhaps be not entirely unintelligible to many who have tried the experiment of making decisions by postponing them.

HOW FAR WILL FARMERS' CO-OPERATION GO?

"How far will the present farmers' movement toward co-operative buying and selling go, and does it threaten to disturb the established agencies of manufacturing and selling? Are large manufacturers and distributors accurately informed regarding the magnitude and earnestness of the farm movement?"

This is the substance of an inquiry just received from the economic adviser of several large eastern concerns engaged in the manufacture of commodities which farmers buy.

No one can foretell how far the present movement may go, or how soon co-operative plans will be put into effect that will seriously modify our present methods of distributing the necessities of life, as far as at least as the farmer is concerned, but it seems certain that the co-operative movement will continue to grow as the need for it continues. In these times of disturbed business relations, many things will be tried that will not prove to be sound in the long run, and many short cuts will be taken that never would be attempted in a normal state of business. But out of some of these apparently radical movements may grow important and permanent improvements in our system of distributing farm products.

RIPLING RHYMES

PLAYTIME.

If one is wise and thrifty throughout his youth and prime, he may retire at fifty, and have a bully time. Out here where I'm abiding the old boys come to play; I see them gayly along the pike all day. I see their autos trundle, and cheer them as they pass; each old boy has his bundle, and can afford the gas. I count them by the dozen, these old boys come to play, whose gorgeous boats go buzzin' along the asphalt way. They toiled and wrought like thunder in days of auld lang syne; they gathered in the plunder and put it down in brine; they proved against their collars in busy days of yore and earned the useful dollars, and nailed them to the floor. And when their locks were graying, they had their store of wheels; they said, "It's time for playing and kicking up our heels. For years we have been thrifty; no more we'll put up ice; declining years seem nifty, when old boys have the price." My blessings will pursue them as they go past my door, but other old boys view them with spirits sad and sore; old boys who still are slaving, to earn the meagre kale, because they side-stepped saving when they were young and hale.

A SKIN BLEACH

On Board Steamer. One of the very best things that can be used to bleach the complexion is moistened starch. To prepare this, take a little plain laundry starch and dissolve it in enough water to make a paste about the consistency of cream. Rub this over the face, and neck, too if you wish, and over the arms and elbows if these are not as white as you would wish.

It will dry on immediately and it may feel a little stiff and uncomfortable, but this need not worry you. This can be put on at night before you go to bed or at any time during the day, while you are at home. I would not leave it on more than half an hour because the starch is a little bit drying. Rinse it off with warm water.

I have seen this have splendid effect when used every other day for two weeks. Of course, there are some skins which do not react so readily. There are many complexions where the treatment must be internal and the system drained of poisons and fermentations. But if you wish a whiter skin it is certainly not expensive to experiment with the starch and it cannot do any harm. If you have a very oily skin this starch treatment is excellent, for it will absorb much of the grease in the skin and help to draw up the large pores.

If you have coarse pores around the nose I can recommend this starch treatment highly, although if the pores are very large and prominent I would advise you to use my blackhead cleansing powder instead, as this is a little more effective. Laundry starch is usually made from corn and one of the ingredients of the blackhead cleansing powder is cornstarch, though wheat starch is sometimes used.

Catherine A.—You write to me that a year ago you bleached your hair with peroxide and it fell out. You stopped bleaching, had it bobbed, and now it is coming in thick and healthy. Then you ask me for something to bleach it again! Don't you think that it is much better to let it continue thick and healthy and not try any more unfortunate experiments? You can bleach it a very little by using the extra-henna shampoo which I have described, or by giving it egg shampoos and as many sun baths as possible.

Waiting—If you cannot go to a specialist, the only way you can remove superfluous hairs from the face

Itching Blisters Over Baby's Head Cuticura Heals

"A breaking out began on the top of baby's head. It seemed to itch and then later it went into little blisters that spread all over his head and his hair came out. His scalp was red and sore and he irritated it by scratching. He was cross and fretful and the eruption caused his head to look badly for large scales had formed."

"His head had been sore for a month before I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I used one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment which healed him." (Signed) Mrs. M. H. Fish-lack, Kane, Illinois.

Cuticura Soap daily and Cuticura Ointment occasionally prevent pimples or other eruptions. They are a pleasure to use, as is also Cuticura Talcum for perfuming the skin.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden 22, Mass." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c, Ointment 25c and 50c, Talcum 25c.

is to pull them out with a pair of tweezers. They will come back, but can always be pulled out again. The growth of fuzz on the upper lip can be discouraged and bleached by rubbing that part with a mixture of peroxide and ammonia, half and half.

A. M.—One of the best astringents for flabby skin is ice. The place under the chin should be rubbed with ice for about ten minutes every day.

SNOW SHOVELERS SCARCE.

New York, Dec. 28.—New York, which yesterday was removing from its streets the first snowfall of the year found that there was a shortage of laborers, notwithstanding reports of unemployment in the city. A call for 8,000 snow shovelers, with $5.20 for an eight-hour day, brought comparatively little response.

28 IDLE HENS NOW LAY 27 EGGS A DAY

And This Was in Cold Winter Weather. Plan is Simple.

"I fed Don Sung to my 28 hens that were not laying. But they are laying now. I receive as high as 27 eggs a day and never less than 22." Mrs. Jennie Davidson, Yates Center, Kan.
Mrs. Davidson wrote this letter in February. Figure her profit on two dozen eggs a day from hens that "wouldn't lay." We'll make you the same offer we made her. Here it is:
Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.
Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.
Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

When candy forms a soft ball or gathers together when chopped by a spoon into a glass of cold water remove it from stove and pour on plates (unbuttered) to cool. When cool beat with a fork and take up in your hands and work into a cream. Add flavoring, coloring, nuts, and shape.

Turkish Fondant—Mix the following into cool cooked creamy fondant, and shape into a loaf, then cover loaf with melted chocolate: Toast one-quarter pound shelled almonds (blanched) and one-half pound shelled walnuts in the oven until a delicate brown; cut one-eighth pound figs, one-eighth pound candied pineapple and one-quarter pound seeded raisins. Chop fine each ingredient, mix altogether and work them into fondant. Cover fondant loaf with melted chocolate. When hard, cut into slices.

Chocolate Fondant—One cup of fondant, two squares melted chocolate; mix well together, working well with hands. Nuts or candied fruit may be added.

Peppermint Chocolate Creams—Flavor a cup of plain fondant with peppermint. Work thoroughly, then mold into round, flat cakes the size of a silver dollar. Allow them to harden over night, and coat with bitter chocolate.

Stuffed Dates—One box dates, one cup fondant, one-half cup walnut meats (not chopped). Remove stones from dates carefully. Work the vanilla into fondant and mold into small ovals. Put a roll into each date and press half a walnut into the cream. Then toss the date into powdered sugar.
